Jamestown Rediscovery Remembers Queen Elizabeth II

JAMESTOWN, Va. (September 8, 2022) –

Along with the world, the Jamestown Rediscovery Foundation is remembering the incredible life and impact of Queen Elizabeth II, who has died after reigning for a remarkable 70 years. The Queen visited Jamestown twice - first in 1957 in her first official state visit to the U.S. and again fifty years later in 2007 to mark the 400th anniversary of the beginning of Jamestown, which was the first successful colony of the British Empire.

The Jamestown Rediscovery team was honored to host Queen Elizabeth II fifteen years ago to share the discovery of James Fort, which was thought lost on her earlier visit. Many of our team members remember her enthusiasm and warmth fondly and we will keep her family in our thoughts.

Photos of the Queen's visits to Jamestown, with captions and crediting information, can be found here.

About Historic Jamestowne/Jamestown Rediscovery
